

Kirklees

This MPW support was initiated in the previous contract year, but with a high number of support options, finalising the offer proved challenging.

After identifying the key elements for development, the skills within the locality and the plans that were already in motion; it was decided that more practical support resources and tools, as well as general information sharing would be the most beneficial and impactful across Kirklees.

The key areas identified:

- Lundy Model of participation
- Participation log
- Barriers to participation
- Outcomes and measures
- Participation Strategies
